"As a people of
'we the people' fame
we have become either ahistorical, amazingly obedient,
exceedingly stupid
or all three.
We can stay that way if we choose – either denying the corporate state or resigning ourselves to it – with the understanding that every day we fail to challenge the corporate state is another day that the planet falls down around us."
